

Has this ever happened to you?

I just returned from the National Genealogical Society Conference in Raleigh, N.C. and knowing that I had a deadline for this article I was racking my brain for those perfect words. I had it on the tip of my tongue and poof it was gone!

I guess it happens to all of us at one time or another, but these “senior moments” are really getting old!

The NGS Family Conference was locally sponsored by the North Carolina Genealogical Society. The host society was there to make sure all attendees had a great time and were exposed to some wonderful speakers. It’s almost summer and hopefully your vacation includes a trip to a local library, archives or your family home. And those elusive ancestors find their way into your family tree.

Happy Hunting,
